

In late December 2017, a couple in Iowa checked on their 50 beehives when they discovered a tragic incident. The hives had been overturned and hacked apart, the equipment had been thrown out of the shed and smashed. This destruction caused the death of half a million bees and approximately $60,000 in property damage. Nearly three weeks later, two boys (12 and 13 years old) were arrested who are allegedly responsible for the damage. The charges against them include criminal mischief, offenses to an agricultural animal facility, and burglary. Since they are still minors, they'll be charged in juvenile court where they face up to 10 years in prison and fines up to $10,000 if convicted.

A couple found out that their beehives were smashed. Most of the bees died and the police did find out who did it. It was two young boys who will serve juvy. It cost a lot of money to fix the beehives.

A couple had their beehives destroyed and the police found out who it was. It was two young boys.

Two young boys destroyed a couple's beehives. The police apprehended them.

In December 2017, an Iowa couple discovered their 50 beehives were destroyed and their equipment had been smashed. This resulted in the loss of half a million bees and $60,000 in damages. Three weeks later, two boys, ages 12 and 13, were arrested and charged with criminal mischief, offenses to agricultural facility, and burglary. They face up to 10 years in prison and monetary fines if convicted in juvenile court.

In 2017, an Iowa couple discovered that their 50 beehives had been destroyed. This resulted in $60,000 worth of damages. Two boys, ages 12 and 13, were charged with criminal mischief, and burglary. They face up to 10 years in jail and some fine, if convicted.

Two young boys, aged 12 and 13, were responsible for damaging beehives that belonged to a couple. The destruction they wrought is so great that the boys face 10 years of jail time for criminal mischief.

Two young boys damaged and ruined a couple's bee hive causing 60,000 thousand in damage and will be going to juvenile court where they face up to ten years and have to pay 100,000

Two young boys damaged a couple's beehive causing damages amounting to 60,000 dollars. They were remanded and taken into custody where they could be in jail for up to 10 days.

Two young boys were found to have damaged a couple's beehive that amounted to 60,000 in damages. The boys were captured by authorities and are now facing up to 10 days in jail.

Two boys damaged a couple's bee hive in the amount of 60,000. They are facing up to 10 years in jail.