

In late December 2017, a couple in Iowa was checking on their 50 beehives when they discovered a tragic scene. The hives had been overturned and hacked apart, and the equipment had been thrown out of the shed and smashed. This destruction caused the death of about half a million bees and approximately $60,000 in property damage. Nearly three weeks later, police arrested two boys (12 and 13 years old) who, allegedly, were responsible for the damage. The charges against them include criminal mischief, burglary, and offenses to an agricultural animal facility. Since they are still minors, they will be charged in juvenile court where they face up to 10 years in prison and fines of up to $10,000 if convicted. Police officials explained that the investigation is still in progress, and the evidence so far doesn't warrant rushed conclusions about the guilt of the suspects.

A couple in Iowa discovered that their many beehives were destroyed. After investigating the scene, the police were able to discover that the main suspects were two minors. The minors were charged with a variety of crimes. However, because the alleged suspects were minors, the police have announced that they may face less severe charges. The police have also asked that people avoid jumping to conclusions.

In late December of 2017, a couple in Iowa was checking on their 50 beehives when they discovered a tragic scene. The beehives had been destroyed and the tools in their shed thrown everywhere, causing about $60,000 worth of damages. Three weeks later, police arrested two boys (12 and 13 years old) for, allegedly, committing the crime. The boys were charged with three different things. Since they were still minors, they were tried in juvenile court and face up to 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. However, police say that the allegations against the boys may not be enough to determine that they are guilty.

In December 2017, 50 beehives were destroyed resulting in damages of $60,000. The beehives were hacked apart and thrown from the shed resulting in the death of nearly 1/2 a million bees. The suspects, a 12 and 13 year old, are being charged and could face up to 10 months in juvie and fines of $10,000. Investigators remind that there isn't enough evidence yet to assume the boys guilty.

A couple in Iowa discovered that many of their beehives were destroyed. The suspects are two minors. Because they are minors, they may face less severe charges. Police have asked that the public don't jump to conclusions.

In late December of 2017, a couple discovered their 30 beehives destroyed and their shed ransacked, which caused over $60,000 worth of damages. Weeks later, a 12 year old boy and a 13 year old boy were allegedly found at fault for the crime. Because they were minors, they were only in jail for a year and had to pay a $10,000 fine; however, this allegation is not enough to prove they were guilty.

A 12 year old boy and 13 year old boy are suspects of damaging a bee hive. The damages cost $60,000 and the beehive was hacked apart and thrown from a shed. If the boys are found guilty, they may have to pay a fine up to $10,000 or serve time in juvie.

A couple in Iowa discovered that many of their beehives were destroyed. The suspects are two minors; because they are minors, they may face less severe charges. The police have asked that the public not jump to conclusions.

One day, a couple with 30 behives found their shed ransacked and the beehives destroyed which resulted in over 60k in damage. A boy and a girl who were both minors were sentenced to 10k in fines and only a year in jail, since they were minors.

Two boys destroyed a beehive with damages costs of up to 60k. They could face fines of up to 10k or time in juvie.

Beehives destroyed. Two minors may be responsible and are being investigated. Public told not to assume.

One day a couple's shed was destroyed that housed their 60 beehives, resulting in thousands of dollars in damages. A boy and girl were convicted and given a fine of $1000, but were given leniency since they were minors

Two boys damaged a beehive, with damages amounting to over 60k. The boys face fines of 10k and possibly juvie time.

Two minors are suspected of destroying a beehive, but this is just an assumption.

A couple's house was destroyed resulting in thousands of dollars of damage as their beehives were also messed up. Also, a boy and girl were charged with $1000 of damage but were let off because they were minors.

One day a couple's shed was destroyed that housed their 60 beehives, resulting in thousands of dollars in damages. A boy and girl were convicted and given a fine of $1000, but were given leniency because they were minors.

Two boys damaged a beehive with damages up to 60k. The boys are facing charges of 10k and possible juvie time.