

Since mid-April 2018, a region in Bavaria, Germany, has faced a series of purposefully set fires burning trash cans, a car and even an entire town house. At its peak, eight different fires were started in a single night. Fortunately, nobody was hurt, but the material damages were estimated at around $450,000. The police could not make significant advances in finding the perpetrator, until they publicly offered a reward of $6000 for each helpful tip. A black shirt with a unique design which was found on one of the crime scenes might have given the critical clue. About a week ago, the police arrested a 37 year old suspect on charges of severe arson. If found guilty, he will face up to 10 years in prison. According to recent reports, experts believe that the evidence against him is strong enough for a conviction, especially since his statements about his whereabouts seem to show some inconsistencies.

In April 2018 Germany faced a series of fires burning trash cans, a car and even an entire town house. Nobody was hurt. They found a shirt of the person who committed the crime. He will be charged 10 years in prison

Since mid april-2018 there has been a series of fires in Bavaria Germany. Trash cans, cars, etc. They haven't been able to find a suspect until they offered a reward of $6000 dollars. They found a unique shirt at the crime scene and have apprehended a suspect. If sentenced he will face 10 years in jail

An arsonist is on the loose in Britain. He caused a lot of damage. He left a black shirt at his crime scenes. Authorities are confident they will be able to convict him.