

On January 15, 2018, a woman (66 years old) without a ticket and passport slipped through airport security and took a flight from Chicago to London. The woman entered Chicago O'Hare International Airport on January 14. First, she hid her face with her hair and passed two Transportation Security Administration officers who were controlling other passenger's boarding passes. After she was screened, she wanted to board a flight to Connecticut but failed. When the woman tried to sneak past the gate agent, she was stopped and directed to sit down. She stayed overnight at the airport and rode a shuttle bus to the international gate the next day, even though a passport and plane ticket are required to board the shuttle. She then entered a plane to Heathrow Airport (London), where she was detained by British customs officials. She arrived back in the United States on January 18. The woman is charged with theft and misdemeanor for trespassing.

Woman 66 years old seaked in an Airport in Chicago and slipped by security by hiding her face, without passport or boarding ticket. She tried to get on a flight to Kentucky, but failed, she was sat down and stayed over night. The next day, January 15 2018 she got on a shuttle to the international Terminal and got on a flight to Heathrow, London, still without ticket or passport, where she was confined by British officers and on January 18 2018 sent back to the US. She was charged with theft and trespassing.

On January 15, 2018, a woman (66 years old) without a ticket and passport slipped through airport security and took a flight from Chicago to London. The woman entered Chicago O'Hare International Airport on January 14. First, she hid her face with her hair and passed two Transportation Security Administration officers who were controlling other passenger's boarding passes. After she was screened, she wanted to board a flight to Connecticut but failed. When the woman tried to sneak past the gate agent, she was stopped and directed to sit down. She stayed overnight at the airport and rode a shuttle bus to the international gate the next day, even though a passport and plane ticket are required to board the shuttle. She then entered a plane to Heathrow Airport (London), where she was detained by British customs officials. She arrived back in the United States on January 18. The woman is charged with theft and misdemeanor for trespassing.

A woman was caught trying to board a flight without paying

A woman, 66 years old seaked into an airport in Chicago hiding her face without a passport or ticket. She planned to go to Kentucky, but missed the flight. therefore she stayed inside the airport over night. The next day, January 15 2018 she took a flight to Heathrow, London. January 19 2018 she got arrested by British policemen for trespassing.

On January 15, 2018 a woman (66 years old) flew from Chicago to London without a ticket or a passport. She first entered Chicago O'Hare Airport on January 14. She hid her face with her hair as she passed two Transportation Security Administration officers who were busy checking the luggage of other passengers. She then attempted to board a plane to Connecticut but failed. When she tried to pass the gate she was stopped and told to sit back down. She stayed overnight in the airport and the next day boarded a flight to Heathrow Airport (London). She was detained by customs and security patrol at the airport after her plane landed and was not allowed to enter. She was then ordered to fly back to Chicago. She was charged with misdemeanor and trespassing.

A woman was caught trying to board a flight without paying.

a woman who wanted to go to Kentucky, went to London Heathrow because she missed her original flight. in London she got arrested three days later for something like hiding her face.

A woman was caught trying to board a flight without paying.

A woman who wanted to go to Kentucky went to London Heathrow because she missed her flight. Three days later she was arrested because of hiding her face or something.